No. 15.

Claims 1-25, 27, and 29-34 are allowed.

Reasons for Allowance

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The prior art of record fails to show or render obvious the claimed rotational control apparatus wherein one of the ring of magnetic material and the permanent magnets of the eddy current drive is carried by the input and the other is mounted on the first, friction disc portion.

The art also fails to show a rotational control apparatus having a means for rotating the hub on the shaft at a speed different from the first rotational speed when the first, friction disc portion is in the second position including a first drive component located on the input and a second drive component mounted on the first, friction disc portion with the spacing between the drive components changing as the first friction disc portion moves from its second position to its first position. The prior art of record fails to show cooling fins in first and third quadratures arranged at an acute angle from radial lines while fins in the second and fourth quadratures are arranged along radial lines. The prior art also fails to show the vanes on the first and second drive components as defined in combination with a pilot extension for removably and slidably mounting a fan to the output, the fan drawing air through openings and intermediate the first and second components.
